

KLOVE radio is very important to me! They play very good music. They provide news coverage and even local weather sometimes. If KLOVE's translator has to go off the air because an LPFM station will take over their slot, I'll really miss it. It's about the only station I listen to. KLOVE serves our community by being so positive and encouraging in its outlook. I'll bet that boosts productivity.